Anyway, I'm thinking about my cartoon's story board and Shhh! I'm readying a cartoon!

Haha. Are you saying that I can't talk about our cartoon because of the cartoon, Tower of God?
Yeah!

I was thinking about whether or not I would tell them I'm Mev but I didn't say. He he.

I guess you could have said that you're a big fan of PLM too!!

How about my arm bar power?

Penguin, I didn't tell you about this but I sent an e-mail to the Naver webtoon team once.
What? Haha
When? What did you say?

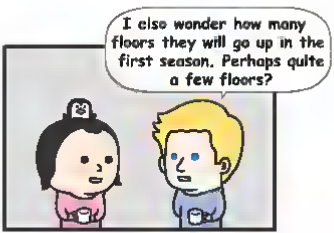
Well, they are...
No, no no no! Don't tell me!



I also wonder how many floors they will go up in the first season. Perhaps quite a few floors?

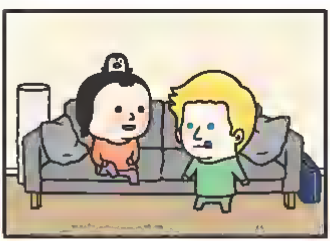
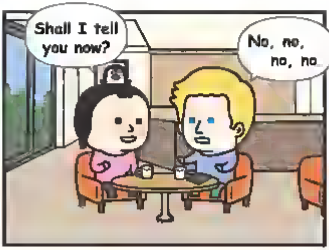
... I don't know what to do when he crosses the line

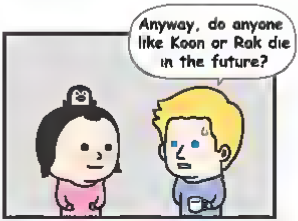
...he's fell deeply into the cartoon
that is called Tower of God

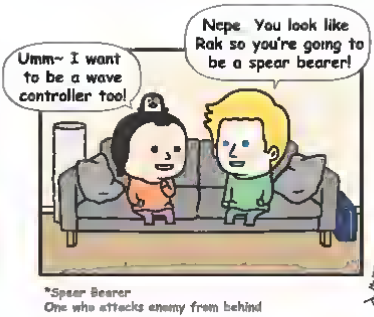


I like that he likes that cartoon but..



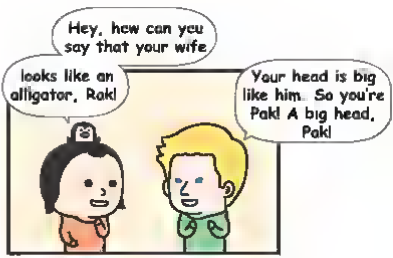
However, he refused to hear about it from me



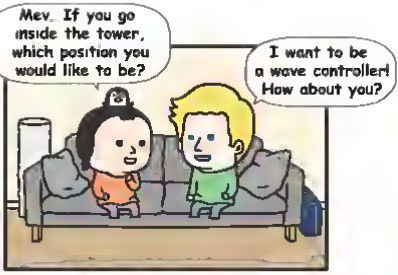


Nope. You look like Rak so you're going to be a spear bearer!
Umm~ I want to be a wave controller too!
Rak
*Spear Bearer
One who attacks enemy from behind

Mev started to make fun of me.

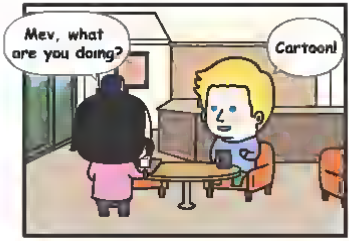


Tower of God

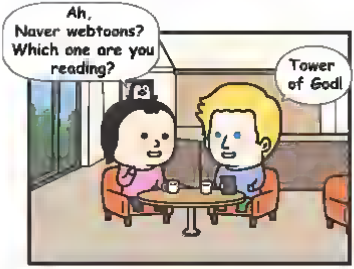


*Wave Controller
One who can control the power of Shin-su which means air or energy in the tower

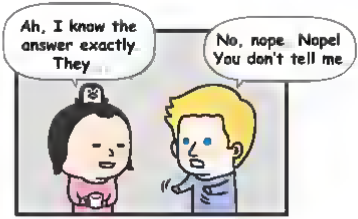
Then once, we talked about what would happen if we went into the tower.



Mev used to have no interest in cartoons but nowadays, he's started to read more Korean cartoons.



Especially,...



Ah, I know the answer exactly. They
No, nope. Nope! You don't tell me

Hoh~ I bet someone will betray them. I'm sure. Yeah ...

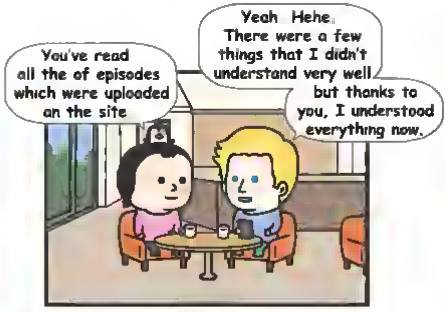
He's guessing a lot.



You've read all the of episodes which were uploaded on the site
Yeah Hehe. There were a few things that I didn't understand very well but thanks to you, I understood everything now.

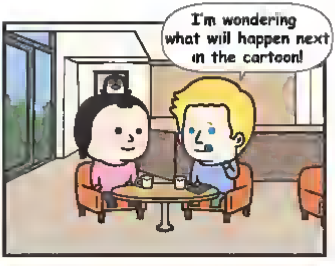
As the English version isn't as up ta date as the Korean site...



... Mev was wondering what the next story would be.
